

Love Died Screaming

Who pulled the trigger on you and me
Thought we would last an eternity
Two bleeding hearts are no better than one
Total eclipse is soon to come

Our last I love you left with the wind
There's no way out from this hell we're in
A suit of armor won't shield us now
I hear the angels cry out loud

(chorus)
It's too late to save us
Don't even try
It's too late to wonder
Why, oh why
Cracked open wide, sobbing inside
Buried alive
Love died screaming

Who'd of thought it would end like this
Too much in pain for a goodbye kiss
The ground is wet from the tears we cried
A part of us has surely died

The war is over both sides lost
The final battle wasn't worth the cost
Thunder and lightning stab a sky of grey
We know it's over as we walk away

(repeat chorus)
