

Any Minute Now

I've got a heart that's about to explode
My baby called me just an hour ago
She's been gone such a long, long time
Soon she'll be back in these arms of mine
She sounds so sexy on the telephone
I can't believe she's finally comin' home
I've thought about her mornin', noon and night
I'm goin' crazy 'til I hold tight

(chorus)

Any minute now she'll come through that door
(she'll be here any minute)
Any minute now she'll walk across that floor
(we'll take it to the limit)
Soon we'll be standin' face to face
Both our hearts will start to race
Not a second will waste
Any minute now

I think I hear her car radio
How much I've missed her, God only knows
Soon she'll be slammin' her convertible door
Wearin' somethin' I ain't seen before
I close my eyes and remember her kiss
I feel her fire as I make a wish
Please let her come before I lose control
This girl has got me, body and soul

(repeat chorus)
