

Free

He goes to work every morning
The boss says that he can go far
But every day gets more boring
He wants to play the guitar
He put his passion behind me
To make a dollar or two
Now he's tryin' to find what
He thinks that he should do

(chorus)

What are you searchin' for
Somethin' you'll never find
Knockin' on everyone's door
Your only wastin' your time
Why don't you put a little faith in your heart
Don't let them tell you how you should
Do what you were meant from the start
That's when
Then and only then you'll be free

She gave her life to her husband
He told her how she should be
And if she didn't obey him
He'd make that poor girl bleed
She thought that deep down inside him
She'd find a gentle man
And if she'd only abide him
He wouldn't hurt her again

(repeat chorus)

*Written by Frankie Moreno
©2008 Luccivanni Publishing – BMI
Completed in Las Vegas, Nevada*