

I'm Done

I never made it to the gates of heaven
I never even made it close
The devil greeted me with booze and women
We raised our glass and drank a toast

It's true, it's over
It's true, I'm done, I'm done
I'm done, I'm done, I'm done

Now I'm not saying that I like it this way
I'd raise hell if I had the time
I spend the whole day lookin' for a new way
To get my conscious off my mind

My head is pounding
These tears I cry won't stop
I cry around the clock

(chorus)
I know that you might think I didn't even try
I realize that all of this is all my fault
Now everyone just scratch their heads and wonder why
I'm in a dungeon chained to the wall

You say the smile that is on my face seems fake
My world is nothing like it was
We made a deal on a wink and hand shake
And then we broke it just because

My head is pounding
These tears I cry won't stop
I cry around the clock

(repeat chorus)

It's true, it's over
It's true, I'm done, I'm done
I'm done, I'm done, I'm done
