

Madder Than Ever

What makes you ask the ultimate question
Do I love you as much as before
Close your eyes let your head on my pillow
You know I love you a thousand times more

If one day the earth should stop turnin'
If the sun should fall from the sky
If the flame in your heart stops burnin'
I would still go insane in your eyes

(chorus)

Am I still mad about you
Would I be lost without you
You make the moonlight linger
With a string tied to your finger
Set my world on fire
Watch the flames grow higher
Am I mad? Yes I'm mad
Baby, you know I'm madder than ever

What makes you think I have all the answers
Is this bed made of truth or lies
Cross your fingers and promise forever
Drive me crazy but leave me surprised

(repeat chorus)
