

Man of Few Words

Some men are talk without any action
Never give a girl enough satisfaction
Promise the world when they don't have a dime
They say they'd never leave then they tell you goodbye

You need a guy who delivers the goods
Make you come alive like a woman should
My heart talks while I do the rest
Ready right now to be put to the test

(chorus)

I'm a man of few words
I'm a man of few words

Who needs talk when there's lots of action
Here's a preview of a coming attraction
When I kiss your lips you won't have much to say
When I squeeze you tight I'll take your breath away

A picture's worth a thousand words
Picture us together undisturbed
You read my mind when I don't say a thing
If silence is golden I'm as rich as a king

(repeat chorus)

I'll get down to business I won't waste your time
I'll love you in silence and still make it rhyme

(repeat chorus)
