

Where Do I Go Now

(chorus)

Wow, where do I go now
I'll spin the world around
Spent too much time in limbo
Starin' through my window
I made it out so where do I go now

Maybe I grew up too fast
Foggin' up the hourglass
I won't live my life
Like some old man who bottles sand

So I poured it 'round my feet
Makin' my own private beach
A new philosophy
That came from nowhere

(chorus)

Maybe I should book a flight
Fly to Dublin for the night
Or maybe Cozumel
I'll buy a boat and sail alone

I could throw away my phone
Clear my head and write a song
Make it big someday
And win a Grammy

Hey making friends along the way

(repeat chorus)

Maybe I grew up too fast
Foggin up the hourglass
I won't live my life
Like some old man who bottles sand
