

Burn Out The Flame

Twilight, midnight
The middle of the afternoon
It don't matter where or when
I just keep thinkin'
How those nights looked on you

Candleglow, and I'm oh so alone
Waitin' on the dawn
Can't get to sleep at night
Your memory's squeezin' me too tight
And I'm so tired of holdin' on

(chorus)
The fire in your eyes keeps burnin'
And I'm so uncertain
Of who's to blame
I try and I try
But these tears that I'm cryin'
Just won't seem to burn out the flame

Daybreak, and this heartache
Is still smolderin' me
Can't seem to put out the spark
Girl you've branded my heart
The hurt's so thick
I can't see

(repeat chorus)

I try and I try
But these tears that I'm cryin'
Just won't seem to burn out the flame

*Written by Frankie Moreno / Betsy Walter
©2018 Luccivanni Publishing – BMI / Buckhold Music - ASCAP
Completed in Nashville, TN*