

Missin' You

Late at night
When the world's at peace
I lie awake and think about you
I hear your voice
Talkin' in my sleep
Don't wanna wake up here without you

I count the stars, I count the lies
I count the tears that left my eyes
For many nights they fell like pourin' rain
I'll be alright
One of these days
But I'll never be the same

(chorus)

Now you're gone, gone baby gone
The memories keep hangin' on
I hear your name in every song
I'm still missin' you
What we had was once so strong
But everything just went so wrong
Now you're gone, gone baby gone
And I'm still missin' you

The tick-tock of the bedroom clock
Poundin' in my head
Is nearly drivin' me mad
'Cause I'm still here
Alone in this bed
Lost in the good times that we had

(repeat chorus)

(bridge)

Maybe I'm just a fool
For thinkin' you might miss me too
If ever you decide to change your mind
I'll be here for you
