

Sorry

Girl, I know what you need to hear
It's coming through loud and clear
And girl, I know what you want me to say
It's written all over your face
I threw our love away
Still I just can't say

(chorus)
I'm sorry, sorry
For letting my pride let your love die
Can't say sorry, sorry
For letting you go when you needed me most
I know I hurt you so much
But I can't say I'm sorry
Can't say I'm sorry enough

Girl, I really have no excuse
But then what's the use
It's too late
You're already letting me go
But I want you to know
I'm going out of my mind
And for the hundredth time

(repeat chorus)

Before you leave me behind
Girl for the millionth time

(repeat chorus)
