

Things

Everything I've ever known is changing
It's like a whole new world I'm livin' in
A little bit confused
'Cause there's so much to lose if I don't win

Starin' out the window of a new place
A place I'm supposed to call my home
Dreams becoming real
But sometimes I can't help but feel alone

(chorus)

Be careful what you wish for
When there's so much at stake
And I hope the ground will meet me on the next step I take
None of this will matter
It will never be enough
It's not about the things you get
It's the things that you give up

The face in the mirror's gettin' older
Every story brings a brand new line
Chasin' down a dream
But it seems I'm runnin' out of time

The world's spinning fast and I'm gettin dizzy
It's all I can do to just hold on Everything's a blur
I was nothing without her
And now she's gone

(repeat chorus)

*Written by Frankie Moreno
©2019 Luccivanni Publishing – BMI
Completed in Las Vegas, Nevada*