

Windowless Van

She met him at a park in Felton
She thought he was a striking man
He picked her up that night
And took her for a ride
Inside of his windowless van

They must of drove around for hours
He said he had the perfect plan
They parked down by the creek
He kissed her on the cheek
Inside of his windowless van

(chorus)
She never felt this feeling before
This would be her final man
She didn't know what she was in for
Inside of his windowless van

They climbed into the back together
That's when all his fun began
He unbuttoned her shirt
His hand went up her skirt
Inside of his windowless van

(repeat chorus)

She said I'm ready to go home now
He pinned her down and tied her hands
Couldn't bear to see her cry
So he cut out her eyes
Inside of his windowless van

He took a scalpel to her soft skin
He slowly peeled away her tan
He carved out her heart
Then drove back to the park
Alone in his windowless van
