

Back To The Boogie

Well I'm leavin' California
I'm jumpin' off that train
All this L.A music
Is soundin' all the same
Gettin' back to the boogie (Back to the boogie)
Back to the boogie (Back to the boogie)
Take it back to the roots
Of the red, white, and blues

I went to New York City
The bands go all night long
I really liked their playin'
But I didn't dig the songs
Back to the boogie (Back to the boogie)
Back to the boogie (Back to the boogie)
Take it back to the roots
Of the red, white, and blues

Gonna jump on that highway
Get on the move
I found a little band
Who really knows how to groove
Gettin' back to the boogie (Back to the boogie)
Gettin' back to the boogie (Back to the boogie)
Take it back to the roots
Of the red, white, and blues

So follow me to Texas
We'll hit Chicago too
Then roll down to Memphis
In our blue suede shoes
Gettin' back to the boogie (Back to the boogie)
Back to the boogie (Back to the boogie)
Take it back to the roots
Of the red, white, and blues

Take it back to the roots
I've got the red, white, and blues

*Written by Frankie Moreno / Tony Moreno
©2020 Luccivanni Publishing – BMI / Featherpen Publishing - BMI
Completed in Las Vegas, NV*