

One More Night

Why, why did you leave me
Where, oh where have you gone
I thought I was loved by you completely
But now I see that I was wrong

(chorus)

I know you're gone
I'm so alone
I can't go on without you by my side
I beg you please
Come home to me
You won't believe the tears these eyes have cried
I would give, I would give
Every day of my life
Just to be here with you for one more night

Don't, don't misunderstand me
I want you to come home to stay
Although I know you no longer need me
You made that clear when you walked away

(repeat chorus)
