

Shattered Eyes

Tommy with the long hair, brand new Cadillac
Lookin' for a girl who will come check out the back
Jenny with the short dress said she's come along
He takes her for a ride then he drops her off at home

(chorus)

It's way too soon to cry
But they see through shattered eyes

Now Jenny's always callin', can't be left alone
Tommy's in the hot seat, doesn't check his phone
Rushed into a yes when it should've been a no
Gettin' in a mess 'cause they didn't take it slow

(repeat chorus)

Somethin' outta nothin' can't amount to much
Causin' such destruction in everything they touch
Now Tommy drives alone in his brand new Cadillac
Soon he'll have a new girl climb into the back

(repeat chorus)
