

I'll Be There For You

I bet he hasn't told
How good you look tonight
I see you out there dancin'
And he ain't holdin' you that tight
If he's untrue, or he treats you unkindly
If he lets you go I hope you know where to find me

(chorus)

I'll be there for you if he makes you blue
And you need someone
I'll pick up all the pieces
And undo the damage done
Anyplace, anytime
If you should find you want me too
Whoa anywhere, I'll be there for you

I know that you're taken
But you take my breath away
So if your heart starts breakin'
I'll keep the promise that he made
I'll go on home, my feelings go without saying
But if he makes you cry, you know I will be waiting

(repeat chorus)
