

Are You There

Hello my love, I'm on the corner
It's pourin' rain and I'm here waiting
Tried to hail a cab, had no luck with that
You know how I can be impatient
It's getting cold, the minutes crawling by
I heard your name called by a stranger
Caught me by surprise and made you cross my mind
I wonder how you are today

(chorus)

I can never find the words to convey
All I wanna do is just say "hey"
Don't mean to be a bother as I wait
Are you there? (are you there, are you there, are you there)
Are you there? (are you there, are you there, are you there)

Hello again, I'm on the subway
You would laugh at all the crazies
Don't mean to text again but I'll be home in ten
Would you wanna join me maybe
With some luck, we'll grab a table
At that place we like with cheap tequila
If you're up for that, then you can text me back
I'm not sure you're even able

(repeat chorus)

Hello old friend, I'm on an airplane
We're on the runway and I'm waiting
You're probably busy now, thought I'd try you anyhow
Just thought I'd say goodbye while I'm waiting
Are you there?
