

I Think About You

Every night before I close my eyes to fall asleep
I think about you
And in the mornin' when I make myself somethin' to eat
I think about you
I hear your name and get excited, sometimes it's too hard to hide it
Everything's remindin' me of you

(chorus)

Every face, every smile
Normally that's not my style
But you dance through my head
And I forget about the things I said that I was supposed to do
And I think about you

Slowin' down to catch a red light
So I got more time to think about you
There's no need to worry 'cause I'm never in a hurry
Thinkin' bout you
Even the clouds are spellin' out your name, your perfume's fallin' down like rain
And every song's remindin' me of you

(repeat chorus)

Baby I'll be waitin' here, you're my light and I'm your mirror
The thought of you's forever, and I'll never let it go

Slowin' down to catch a red light
So I got more time to think about you
There's no need to worry 'cause I'm never in a hurry
Thinkin' bout you
Well, I hear your name and get excited, sometimes it's too hard to hide it
Everything's remindin' me of you

Every face, every smile
Normally that's not my style
Every song, every rhyme
Every place and all the time
You just dance through my head
And I forget about the things I said that I was supposed to do
And I think about you-oooh-oooh
