

She's My Girl

She's like a diamond in a room of broken mirrors
She's like a treasure in the sand
She's the only one that I can love forever
And not even begin to understand

She's a roller coaster ride across a sunset
She's a fire that always burns
I think the world spins
Because the stars above
All just want their chance to stare back down at her

(chorus)

She's eleven outta ten but she doesn't care
From the way that she moves to the clothes that she wears
I'd hang the moon if I could on a string of pearls
She's a cool summer night, a breath of fresh air
She's got diamonds in her eyes and gold in her hair
She's all the best things in this whole wide world
And she's my girl

No words in any language could describe her beauty
But she's as pretty as can be
Way down deep inside her heart is always singin'
And I try to harmonize her melody

(repeat chorus)
