She's My Girl

She's like a diamond in a room of broken mirrors She's like a treasure in the sand She's the only one that I can love forever And not even begin to understand

She's a roller coaster ride across a sunset She's a fire that always burns I think the world spins Because the stars above All just want their chance to stare back down at her

(chorus)

She's eleven outta ten but she doesn't care
From the way that she moves to the clothes that she wears
I'd hang the moon if I could on a string of pearls
She's a cool summer night, a breath of fresh air
She's got diamonds in her eyes and gold in her hair
She's all the best things in this whole wide world
And she's my girl

No words in any language could describe her beauty But she's as pretty as can be Way down deep inside her heart is always singin' And I try to harmonize her melody

(repeat chorus)
