

99 Bottles

99 bottles layin' around
Each one empty from a night gone down
That one's a breakup, that one's a fight
That one's the best damn night of my life
All of them pages that I'm flippin' through
A graveyard full of the hell I knew

(chorus)

99 bottles up on the wall
99 stories and I drank 'em all
Take one down, toast to the past
Some went quick, some kicked my ass
Some to remember, some to forget
But there's still more bottles and I ain't done yet

That one's her number on a napkin tear
That one's me dancin' in my underwear
This one here, yeah, don't ask me
But I think it got me kicked out of Tennessee
Every single sip has a tale to tell
Some felt like heaven, some raised hell

(repeat chorus)

(bridge)

99 first kiss, 98 shots missed, 97 swore I'd quit, 96 that was it
95 big toast, 94 that hurt the most, 93 can't say, guess I drank it anyway

Some went down smooth
Some of them burned
Some filled with lessons
That I never learned
That one's a shotgun wedding gone south
That one's the time I got punched in the mouth
One's full of tears I never let show
One's full of names that I'll never know

(repeat chorus)

That one's a fistfight, that one's a sin
That one's the night she let me back in

*Written by Frankie Moreno / Tony Moreno
©2025 Luccivanni Publishing – BMI / Featherpen Publishing - BMI
Completed in Las Vegas, NV*