

Half Crazy

Puttin' one step forward, with one foot in the grave
Talkin' to the angels feelin' like the devils slave
Deep in my minds photographs, in the darkroom of my brain
Starin' at torn pages it feels like I've gone insane

I'll fly 'til I finally get there
Feels like my hearts on my sleeve
Gettin' all my reasons together to leave
My dreams all get wasted in sleep
I scream nothing more I can take
Oh why can't they come around while I'm awake

(chorus)
Why do the thoughts in my mind always feel so far away
I grip my pillowcase to help me find a way
I've got to find a way

Tearin' pages from my story, scattered like the rain
Tryin' to piece 'em back together but I'm tangled in the pain
The ghosts that haunt my hallway are dressed in faces I once knew
Now they're laughin' at my breakdown like its déjà vu

I'll fly 'til I finally get there
Feels like my hearts on my sleeve
Gettin' all my reasons together to leave
My dreams all get wasted in sleep
I scream nothing more I can take
Oh why can't they come around while I'm awake

(repeat chorus)

Bridge)
Clock hands circle like vultures, pickin' time off my bones
I've been dancin' with shadows just to not feel alone
My mirror shows a stranger, but he knows my every move
And the harder I fight him the more that I lose

(repeat chorus)

Outro)
Hell is empty, seems the devils are all here
The sand in the hourglass slowly disappears
So I'll retrace my steps one footprint at a time
I'll find a way
