

Hollow Hymn

Walk me through those pearly gates
Up the stairway, show me my fate
Let me embrace everyone I've loved
Tears of joy, kisses and hugs

Hark, hear the angels a glorious sound
Trumpets ascending, the choir resounds
Laughter and light in the streets of gold
Peace like the stories my grandma told

(chorus)

Take me to heaven, take me in
Don't let this prayer be lost in the wind
I'm singin' hallelujah again and again
But it's only me, It's a hollow hymn

I haven't lived without my flaws
I believed in love but broke its laws
I hoped to find some kind of grace
But now I'm not sure this is the place

I stayed behind when the light moved on
Still said your name after hope was gone
I sang once more though nothin' stirred
Not for an answer but just to be heard

(repeat chorus)

Bridge)

Oh, I don't remember kneelin' but the floor was cold
My hands were shakin' so I had to let go
There was no voice but I heard one anyway
In the way the air refused to move
I thought it might be you but it was only me

(repeat chorus)

Written by Frankie Moreno / Tony Moreno

©2025 Luccivanni Publishing – BMI / Featherpen Publishing - BMI

Completed in Las Vegas, NV