

In My Shoes

You can cast your stone
From a glass house on a hill
But you don't know the nights I've bled
Just tryin' to sit still
Whispers hit like thunder
When they're hiding from the truth
But your words don't mean a thing
'Til you've lived what I've been through

(chorus)

Take a walk with me
Down the roads I've crawled
Feel the cold concrete
See the shadows fall
And if you think that I'm to blame
For the hell I've stumbled through
Then take a walk with me
But walk in my shoes

Don't measure up my sins
Like your soul is clean
Step through my regrets
Where the wreckage used to be
Past the graveyards in my mind
Where the ghosts don't rest at night
I've buried pieces of myself
Just to make it out alive

(repeat chorus)

(bridge)

Don't call it drama when it's carved in my bones
Don't call me bitter when I've died all alone
Twice in my silence, once in my shame
You wouldn't last a mile carryin' my name

You see the smoke, not the fire
The scars, not the screams
You see a man who's still standin'
But not the weight beneath his knees
Try to read my whole story
Not just a page or two
And take a walk with me
But walk in my shoes

Written by Frankie Moreno / Tony Moreno

©2025 Luccivanni Publishing – BMI / Featherpen Publishing - BMI

Completed in Las Vegas, NV